

Agreement on the joint use of OEDs and Laboratory between

Belarusian State University (BSU) and Belarusian State Technological University (BSTU) within the scope of eDrone project

The nature of the collaboration

Belarusian State University (BSU) and Belarusian State Technological University (BSTU) hereafter the "Parties"

- Recognizing the leading role of education in establishing a dynamic national economy and scientific/technological advancement of the Republic of Belarus;
- Aiming to reach international standards in education;
- Willing to further develop mutually beneficial multipurpose relations of cooperation based on good traditions of amicable relations between parties;
- Aiming to implement the terms of this Memorandum of Understanding via consultations and negotiations for the sake of development of educational and research activity in the Republic of Belarus;

Have agreed to the following:

Article 1.

Types of cooperation may include:

Exchange of information and other materials on instructional, research and educational programs;

- Exploring opportunities of coordination, evaluation and accreditation of academic programs;
- Joint research projects, scientific seminars, developing proposals in scientific technological and educational areas;
-
- Establishing a tool or a platform that will enable inter-university cooperation in unmanned aerial vehicles instruction;
- Exchange of instructional aids, equipment and academic materials;
- Development of computerized linkage of library and information systems.

Article 2.

The two Parties form a joint committee to investigate the coordination of BSU and BSTU activities in accordance with this Agreement:

- Encourage, as deemed necessary, the formation of joint working groups;
- Study and evaluate the plans and proposals presented by working groups;
- Prepare reports and evaluation on the results of work performed;
- Explore funding and implementation of certain proposed academic projects

Article 3.

To provide a context for joint research and the realization of other activities that the Parties may sign in separate contracts. Based on the experience of the fruitful cooperation between the separate departments of the two Parties.

Article 4.

The modes of cooperation by agreement and the resulting achievements should be distributed in accordance with laws of the Republic of Belarus and corresponding international patent laws.

The signatures of the Parties
Belarusian State University

Name and occupation of the signatory

K. Kazadaeu, Vice-Rector

Belarusian State Technological University

Name and occupation of the signatory

A. SAKOVICH, Vice-rector